(Seymour, WI)- With two beautiful nights of racing in, the forecast looks bright for Week 3 at Seymour Super Speedway. Napa Auto Parts and Tiletown Express will be the sponsors this week. Racing gets underway at 6 p.m. with the 5 weekly divisions.

Brian Mullen is two for two on the season in the Budweiser IMCA Modifieds. Mullen holds the point lead over Benji LaCrosse by 2 points as LaCrosse has finished runner-up both weeks.

Kyle Frederick picked up the week two feature win in the IMCA Stockcars after a late race duel with Shawn Wagner. Wagner currently holds the point lead by 2 points over Frederick.

Brad Lautenbach used a late race charge to win the IMCA Northern Sportmod feature last week. Lautenbach is the current point leader by 3 marks over Brad Theys.

Matt Drawenek held off Gary Kasperek to win the Street Stock feature. Dan Gracyalny is the leader by 1 point of Shawn Haydon.

Justin Vannieuwenniven is the current point leader in the 4 Cylinders after winning last week. He holds the lead by a margin of 3 over Josh Mroczkowski.
