(Seymour, WI) This Sunday night will be the fourth night of racing at the Seymour Super Speedway. Shiocton Automotive along with Wades Pit Stop & Weslow Water Systems will sponsor the five weekly divisions of racing. Racing gets underway at 6 p.m. "Dancin" Lance Arneson did a waltz on his way to picking up his first feature win of the season in the Budweiser IMCA Modifieds. Brian Mullen is the point leader. Kyle Frederick did one better than Shawn Wagner for the second straight week picking up back to back wins in the IMCA Stockcars. Wagner still holds the point lead by one over Frederick. Rod Solem picked up his first win of the young season in the IMCA Northern Sportmods. Eric Arneson is the top gun right now by one point over Brad Theys. Matt Drawenek won his second straight Street Stock feature last Sunday. Dan Gracyalny and Jerry Winkler share the leader board in the point standings. The 4 Cylinder was not run because of curfew. The current point leader is Justin Vannieuwenhoven.
