This Sunday April 22nd points racing will get underway to crown the 2012 Champions.

All five regular divisions will be in action including The Budweiser IMCA Modifieds, IMCA Stockcars, IMCA Northern Sportmods, Street Stocks and 4 Cylinders.

Racing will get underway at 5 p.m. starting this Sunday all the way until May 27th, which is The first Summer Holiday classic. Racing will then start at 6 p.m. for the rest of the season.

Brian Mullen is the defending IMCA Modified champion and is looking for back to back wins as he won the Spring Thaw on a last lap pass.

Brandon Czarapata grabbed the Spring Thaw feature win in the IMCA Stockcars. Kyle Frederick will be returning to action and looking for his second championship after earning last years top honors.

Brad Theys took the top spot in the IMCA Northern Sportmod Spring Thaw but will have to contend with top gun Brad Lautenbach who is the returning champion.

As of now there will be a new Street Stock champion as Dan Gracyalny will be running a part-time schedule. Gary Kasperek and Jerry Winkler ran with Gracyalny for the championship last year.

Brian Johnson will be searching for his third straight 4 Cylinder championship.
