Seymour August 29- The 2013 season will come to a close this Sunday Night, September 1st, with the final leg of the Summer Holiday Classic series featuring the WDLMA Late Models attacking the 1/3 mile banked clay oval.

This will be the third appearance for the WDLMA Late Models. Over 30 cars have entered each of the first 2 events with Ron Berna and Troy Springborn taking the 30 lap feature wins. The field will be set using draw/re-draw.

The Street Stocks and 4 Cylinder divisions will be completing their point chases.

Jon Ashcraft has led the Street Stock division all season and holds a strong 19 point margin over Mert Summers. Both are looking for their first N.E.W. DIRT titles.

Defending 4 Cylinder Champion, Calvin Stueck, has clawed his way back to the top of the standing the past couple weeks and holds a 13 point spread over Tyler Hungerford.

Point races were concluded in the 3 IMCA divisions last week as Boone starts this week in Iowa. Jason Czarapata successfully defended his Budweiser IMCA Modified title winning his second straight championship trophy.

John Heinz held off 5 time Coors Light IMCA Stock Car champion, Rod Snellenberger to win his first career N.E.W. DIRT title by 2 points.

Cody Hokenstad ran to his first career IMCA Sport Mod championship over Jeremy Cota with a slim 4 point margin.

Jeff Curtain earned the FasTrack Late Model title earlier in the season.

This weeks event will feature full programs in all 6 divisions.

As mentioned, the WDLMA cars will draw/re-draw. The IMCA divisions will also draw/redraw as their point seasons are complete. The Street Stock and 4 Cylinders will use the usual point average to compete.

All will be running for increased Holiday Classic purse money.

Payoff for all divisions will be made after the races.
