Seymour, June 8- On a perfect night, PC Sanitation presented a full 5 division racing program Sunday at the Seymour Speedway, that produced three first time winners at the 1/3 mile banked clay oval.

Joey Taycher assumed the lead in the IMCA Sport Mod main at the start and after a lone caution on lap 3, took control and ran away from the field the rest of the distance.

Dennis Meisler, Lucas Lamberies, Jordan Barkholtz and Jordan Tuyls bunched behind running two and three side chasing the leader.

Tycher picked up his first feature win of the season with Lamberies taking the runner up finish. Jordan Barkholtz,

Meisler,

Jessi Ness and Kevin Bethke rounded out the top 6.

The Turbo Blue Street Stock event went red on the opening lap when the car of Derik Lecker got turned around in turn 2 and slammed into the outside wall at the track exit, moving several blocks, requiring about 15 minutes to replace. Ryan Blank took up the lead position once the race started with Alan Schlueter, Lexi Ashcraft, Justin Lindner Jeff Dorschner and Jerry Winkler behind.

The pack stayed bunched but positions changed several times with Blank holding the top spot until Ken Nelson hit the same spot at the track exit head on, resulting in another red flag on lap 9 to replace the blocks again. Blank again held the top spot on the restart with Winkler making a move to the front taking second from Ashcraft, with Lindner following into 4 when her car got too wide in turn 2 and scraped the wall, sending her car into, you guessed it, the same spot again at the track exit on lap 12.

Only a few tires had to be put back

so the caution

was quick. Fortunately, none of the three drivers that attacked the wall were injured.

But the field was now bunched on Blank. Lindner moved inside and took second from Winkler on the restart with last weeks winner, Jeff Jungwith moving into third.

With time expiring Lindner made a move to the inside of Blank out of turn 2 and took the lead as the white flag was displayed.

Jungwirth followed and took the runner up spot at the finish with Blank holding on to third ahead of Jon Ashcraft, Winkler and Schlueter.

The win would have been Lindners first ever at Seymour, but a post race inspection found an illegal tire, which gave the win to Jungwirth , his second straight and moved Dorschner into the 6th spot.

Te Budweiser IMCA Modifieds put 23 cars on the feature grid with T.J. Smith grabbing the lead at the start with Tyler Wilson, Tony Wedelstadt, Travis Spaulding and Brad Lautenbach behind.

Smith hooked up on the outer groove and maintain a couple length lead as the battle was tight right behind for position.

Lautenbach moved into the runner up spot on lap 10 and set out to close in on the leader.

A lone caution on lap 13 bunched the field on Smith, with Lautenbach, Jason Czarapata, Wilson, Jay Matthias and Spaulding right behind.

Smith again took to the high side on the restart with Lautenbach also up a groove.

Czarapata, took up the lower groove and in 2 laps took the lead from Smith and drove off to his first feature win of the season.

Lautenbach worked by Smith on the white flag lap to take the second place finish.

Chad Bartel made a late race move that netted him fourth with Matthias taking fifth and Mike Wedelstadt sixth.

The Coors Light IMCA Stock Cars ran a fast paced flag to flag event with Josh Mroczkowski taking the initial lead with Jow Schwister, Bill Kelsey, Chas Van Ooyen and Harley Simon behind.

Right from the start the pack ran three and four wide from front to back.

Kelsey moved up to take over the lead on lap

5 with Rod Snellenberger following into the runner up spot.

Both Kelsey and Snellenberger were working in the low groove and Mroczkowski was committed to staying high.

The two leader pulled away by a couple car lengths, but Mroczkowski suddenly came back to life and charged alongside the leaders making it a three wide battle for the lead for 2 laps before Snellenberger took charge on lap 10.

For the rest of the race, Mroczkowski stayed with Snellenberger almost side by side, but Snellenberger held on to win his first feature of the season which was also his 195 career.

Van Ooyen was third with Travis Van Straten taking fourth, Jeremy Wiitala fifth and Barry Van Straten finished sixth.

Trever Saulding set the early pace for the 4 Cylinder finale with Brad Pahl, Brad Wedde, Tyler Hungerford and Brandon Kaye behind. Wedde moved into the lead on lap 3 and a lone caution slowed the pace one lap later. On the restart, Wedde began to pull away from the field battling for the runner up spot. Wedde ran to his third feature win of the season with Kasey Gross making a run through the field to place second.

Carl King took third with Prahl in fourth, Chris Maas taking fifth and Cody Hungerford in sixth.

Next Sunday will be Father's Day at the Seymour Speedway and will be sponsored by Coors Light. The kids club will also have a bike Give Away sponsored by Gold Star Racing Products.

The Seymour Speedway is proud to be a featured member track of www.Ractext.net, a website dedicated to bringing fans the best possible coverage of local short track racing.
